A dispatch to the St. Louis Intelligencer, Havana.] dated Philadelphia, August 29th, stated that Lopez and his force were safely entrenched in the hills back of Havana, and that they were hourly increasing in numbers.

The New Orleans papers of the 23d ult. contain a number of letters written home by several of the fifty-two invaders who were taken prisoners, and awaiting the hour of their execution. We select the following, from the Delta.

It contains a brief account of the circumstances of their capture:

LETTER FROM ADJUTANT R. C. STANFORD, Another of the Victims of Cuban Cruelty. -The gentleman to whom the following letter was addressed, has, at our request, politely furnished it to us for publication.
